Editors Notes

Hello Readers,

Lots going on competition wise and behind the scenes. Please check out page 6 where you will find information on NODA's upcoming open meeting and officer elections.

This month NODA News focuses on NODA members at the National Dressage Pony Cup in Wilmington Delaware. It was a fun show with great facilities at the World Equestrian Center in Wilmington Delaware and will return there in 2024.

Have you qualified for the NODA Schooling Show Championship Show yet? Check out the change for 2023 qualifications on page 4, NODA News You Can Use. Don't forget to earn your four NODA Bucks!!

On that note, take a look at the awards listing in the Schooling Show Prize List and on the website. It's time to think about what you will apply for and you will need NODA bucks to apply. Awards and trophies will be given out at the Annual Awards Brunch on November 19. Save the Date!!

Adult and Young Rider Scholarships are due in October and will be awarded at the Annual Brunch and Banquet. Go to NODA's website to find out how to apply.

Everything you need to know is at www.nodarider.org. Best regards,

NODA Members at the National Dressage Pony Cup

World Equestrian Center Wilmington, OH

Thank you to Helen Welch, Kate Poulin, Emily Gill, and Mosie Welch for photos and quotes!

Helen Welch and Aria, her 15 hands, 6 year- old Chestnut German Riding Pony mare competed in the Small Horse division. Helen says of her experience at the National Dressage Pony Cup, “Wow! An incredible few days. Staff and volunteers for the Pony Cup could not have been more helpful. Judging was fair and constructive and I learned a lot from the feedback on the score sheets.

I met lots of people I didn't know and saw many I did. To be honest I was very overwhelmed on arrival and thought I'd bitten off way more than I could chew with my young mare and the fact that I'd only been back in the saddle for about 6 weeks since back surgery. I just breathed and expected nothing except to have a good, positive experience. She handled it like a pro.

I didn't expect to place at all and we ended up 5th overall for Small Horse 1st level with the 4th and 3rd places only

Helen and Aria after their very first test. Helen says “I nearly cried - the smile on my face says it all. Full of joy doing what I love with my beautiful pony.” Winslow Photography

0.1% and 0.2% ahead of us. I'd definitely do this again! It was great to be with a small group of ladies and we made friends with people stabling around us which made for a really fun few days. The event also included pizza and beer the first night and a banquet with awards the 2nd night. A super fun way to end the show!

Mosie Welch (my sister from another Mother) and I went together. Thank you to Mosie!! We really didn't know one another at all but we have a lot in common and it was a pleasure to ride and stable and show with you!!

The venue was spectacular! Enormous! Stabling for 800 horses!! I loved the stabling and the fact that we could get to the indoor arenas without having to go outside was a plus.

Heck, there was even a ride-through Starbucks!! WEC is huge but I loved the facility and even after torrential rain the outdoor areas were as good as new.”

Kate Poulin was at the National Dressage Pony Cup with students and multiple horses and shared her experience, “Thank you National Dressage Pony Cup for putting on a fun horse show!! We will definitely be coming back next year. Thank you to all the volunteers and people behind the scenes that make these events possible for me and my students.

“Carinosalove him so much. So grateful to ride this special horse owned by Gayle Visani Rusk. We share him and I am so proud of him. It’s his first season at Prix at George so we are just figuring things out. We won all our classes with great scores. Carinosa is qualified for Regional Championships and USDF year end awards, but won’t be joining our fellow riders at Regional championships this year because we are going back to training for next season. Yes 2024 is coming fast! We have some exciting things we are doing this fall. Stay tuned.”

Kate also rode pony, Der Kleine Earl owned by Jennifer Carr at First Level with blue ribbons in each class along with other awards. Earl kept Kate on her toes in the electric environment “but we kept it together to win all our classes and a bunch of high score championships. He’s a super pony that has a big future. I looked forward to showing Earl at this years

National Dressage Pony Cup. It will be my first time in the pony classes with him. I grew up learning to ride on ponies and the first horse/pony I ever trained and showed was Grey’s Flag. I had a long show career with him through Fourth level and got my Bronze medal on him at 13 years old. Back then we didn’t have any pony classes or junior classes so I showed in open classes against horses and adults. I remember showing Grey’s Flag at the Oxford Hunt Club, Third level test 3. Lendon Grey was in my class . Lots of wonderful memories with Greys Flag.” No stranger to small horses Kate “trained and showed Brilliant Too(15.1h) to Grand Prix. He was a horse my parents bred and raised so it was one of my first opportunities to start a young horse. We had a LONG career with many highlights, including representing our country at the Pan American Games. The National Dressage Pony Cup is a great way to celebrate, highlight and encourage other riders with ponies/small horses to support each other.”

Grateful for her students Kate thanks “ my students for all your support and believing in me. Thank you to these beautiful horses for letting us ride you and take you places. Horses are amazing.”

Team Poulin is so much more than horse and rider. Kate would not have been able to be at this show without her wonderful team at home.

“They take care of these beautiful horses everyday. They spend the most time with them and care deeply for them. Without them it would not be possible. Emma Jane Peck, Alyssa Kleinhenn, Michelle Weiland Pedro, Maggie French, Jose Lopez, Seth Kannberg, Elaine Bissell, Thank you.”

Team Poulin Dressage. Mosie Welch

Kate Poulin is a long time NODA member and NODA News advertiser. Kate’s accomplishments include being a USDF Bronze, Silver & Gold medalist. She has been on four NAYRC dressage teams, winning two Gold Medals and has been on the USEF developing riders list since 2006. Qualifying for the US team for the 2007 Pan American Games was one of Kate’s greatest accomplishments where she won a gold medal. She is a USDF Certified Instructor through Fourth Level. Kate rides and trains out of Fairmount Farms, a world class facility in Hiram, Ohio. Find out more at www.KatePoulin.com or call 1-386-624-3968.

Emily Gill has always wanted to compete at the National Dressage Pony Cup and was thrilled to attend with her beloved Kahlua, an 18 year old 15.2 hh Morgan (and part unicorn) gelding . They competed in the FEI I-1 and FEI I-1 Freestyle in the Small Horse division at the 2023 National Dressage Pony Cup.

Emily is proud and honored that Kahlua won the Avatar's Jazzman Morgan Horse Award and was excited to show it to him after the awards banquet.

Emily, supporting clients and friends at the Pony Cup says she “had an amazing time with my friends, enjoying our horses. “WEC is so horse friendly and a wonderful place to show. “

Emily Gill is NODA’s Professional Liaison. Emily is the owner of Emily’s Equestrian Enterprises and rides and trains out of Kachina Farms in Clinton, Ohio. With Kahlua, Emily advanced up the levels with help of her trainer, Francesca Nicoletti earning their USDF Gold Silver, and Bronze medals. She is a USDF certified trainer and also competes and trains Working Equitation.

Mosie Welch and her 15 year old Chestnut half Welsh pony Aleksandr Robyn WH aka Alaska headed to the National Dressage Pony Cup not knowing whether they would compete as a pony or small horse. Having the vet out to measure did not clarify things as the vet measured Alaska “right on the line” at 148 centimeters give or take, with shoes on. “I signed up for Training and First Level pony classes because Alaska had held a temporary pony card in the past.”

Thursday of the Pony Cup was the nail biter. “We weren't scheduled to jog and measure until late afternoon, so we warmed up and prepared under the guidance of our trainer, Emily Gill.” Then we headed to the measurement line with our forms at the ready. I was so worried that our class schedule would change if Alaska ended up a Small Horse instead of a Pony. But on July 6, 2023 Alaska received an official DRESSAGE PONY measurement of 146.5 centimeters! A Dressage Pony with room to spare and I could now relax!

The best part of the National Dressage Pony Cup for Mosie and Alaska was “riding in the wonderful indoor arena and the big show atmosphere!” With seven rings indoors and out, going all day and into the evening on both Friday and Saturday, it was so busy. By following the “horse highway” indoors and out we could get everywhere we needed to be, but it was important to calculate how long it would take to get there! Trainer Emily Gill had it all up on a white board for us and made sure we knew what time to get on and warm up”

The judges gave clear and pointed feedback with a positive approach. No white washing here.

Riding a test in the outdoor.
Winslow Photography

“I was so grateful for all the support I received from trainer Emily Gill, my husband, Denis Osowski, and Helen Welch my travel partner.”

The National Dressage Pony Cup was FUN! Friends old and new, ribbons, cake, carrots, parties, vendors, & rides! Classes for ponies, small horses...and YES, the big horses over 16 hands are welcome too! Each compete in their own division. The National Dressage Pony Cup will be back at the World Equestrian Center in Wilmington, Ohio July 5, 6, and 7 in 2024!
